

WARNING: Side effects of Congressman Don Sherwood's votes include higher drug prices. Sherwood took $205,000 from pharmaceutical and insurance companies and voted for a prescription drug plan that stops Medicare from negotiating lower drug prices.

WARNING:
Don Sherwood's votes may cause shortness of breath

Instead of working to lower drug costs, Don Sherwood has worked to increase his campaign account.

 Don Sherwood may be hazardous to your wallet.

The big pharmaceutical and insurance companies have a friend in Don Sherwood.

They've filled Sherwood's campaign accounts to the tune of $205,000. And they sure got their money's worth.

Sherwood voted for a prescription drug plan that stops Medicare from negotiating lower drug prices and makes drug companies a whole lot of money.

What did you get? You got the bill with higher prices for prescription drugs, higher priced premiums and a $3,000 "donut hole" coverage gap.
